CHICAGO STOCK COMPANY.

The management of the Grand Opera House announce with pleasure the coming for one week, commencing next Monday night, of the well known Chicago Stock Company, in a varied and extensive repertoire of new plays. By new plays, it is meant plays new to the public as presented by the usual repertoire company. The Chicago Syndicate, in sending their stock company upon the road, equipped it in every way far above the standard of the present day week-end company. Each play the Stock Company presents has been staged and costumes in an expensive manner, and will undoubtedly draw large houses all next week. Monday is ladies' free night. Prices during the engagement, 10, 20 and 30 cents.

Opening play Monday night, the great comedy drama, "The Australian." Reserved seats at Brooks' Drug Store.

Two diamond rings will be given away on Saturday—one at the matinee and the other at the evening performance. Every person purchasing a ticket during the week will be entitled to a chance.

Della Fox, the actress, was married to John Levy, of New York, yesterday in Baltimore.

E. H. Sothorn, the well known actor, who for some time was laid up by an accident that necessitated canceling his dates all over the country, made his first appearance Tuesday night since the accident. His interrupted tour will be resumed.

When you go to a barber shop you go to get your hair cut or to get shaved—not to be talked to death. My shop is the place to come. I also have three warm bath rooms attached to my shop.

Universal Week of Prayer.

The Episcopal Churches of Paris will observe the week beginning January 6th in Prayer.

The list of subjects that will be discussed as suggested by the Evangelical alliance will be as follows:

Sunday, January 6th—Appropriate sermons and services.

Monday—Prayer for a better realization of spiritual truth, and a better estimate of spiritual realities; a clearer vision of the redeeming Christ, and of the actual need and the divinely intended glory of the world which he redeemed.

Tuesday—Prayer for a Church which, through faith in Christ, and by the indwelling of the Holy Spirit, shall be wholly Christian, doing God's will and winning the world to Christ.

Wednesday—Prayer for such Christian character and life as shall be pleasant in the home, honored in business relations, welcomed in the neighborhood, helpful in the church—personal religion being thus manifested in its rightful attractiveness.

Thursday—Prayer for right relations in society and the nation, with the Golden Rule obeyed as between man and man, and all social and political action guided by justice and good-will—the Christian ideal.

Friday—Prayer for all international relationships and all international action, that they may be based on the Christian principles which apply to the individual—the reign of the Prince of Peace.

Saturday—Prayer for all missionaries and all missionary organizations, that being wholly inspired by Christian devotion and wholly guided by Christian wisdom, they may speedily and triumphantly fulfill the Saviour's last command.

priate sermons and services.
